Governing Directive	SECNAVINST 5530.4B
----------------------------	--------------------

1. Policy

a. The continuing incidence of worldwide terrorism, criminal dissidence and other unlawful acts necessitates organizing, training and equipping Naval Security Forces to meet emergent security requirements in a timely and effective manner.

b. The primary mission of Naval Security Forces is to provide security aboard naval shore installations, vessels and aircraft.

2. Security Departments Ashore. Guidance for security departments at naval installations ashore is provided in current editions of OPNAVINST 5530.4B and OPNAVINST 5580.1.

3. Security Departments Afloat. Guidance for security departments afloat is provided in the governing directive and current editions of OPNAVINST 3120.32C and OPNAVINST 5580.1.
